A Sit & Go tournament is a poker tournament with a pre-defined number of players (varying from 2 to 120), 1 which begins once all of its seats are filled. To learn how to join a Sit & Go tournaments, please 1 see Join a Tournament, in the Getting Started section of this site. Members may register to a maximum of six 1 poker tournaments and actively play in two poker tournaments at a time.

A Sit & Go tournament commences once the predetermined 1 number of players have registered. Participants will be required to buy in, upon joining the tournament. A Sit & Go 1 tournament buy-in varies depending on the tournament. Participants will also be required to pay a tournament fee. Many tournaments offer 1 rebuys and add-ons at certain points.

Once the tournament is about to begin, players will be seated at the tournament tables, 1 in a random manner. At each tournament table there will then be an initial draw to determine, according to highest 1 ranking card (by suit), which player will act first as dealer.

If the Sit & Go

tournament is being played on 1 more than one poker table, active players may be moved between the tables, as the tournament progresses and players are 1 disqualified (run out of chips).

Tournament blinds will increase as the tournament progresses, according to a predetermined schedule. This stake increase 1 schedule is available in the Tournament Lobby (please see Guide to the Tournament Lobby, in the Our Software section of 1 this site). There are no recesses during Sit & Go tournaments.

If, for technical reasons, the tournament is canceled in the 1 middle, participants who have already been eliminated will lose their buy-ins and entry fees. The remaining players will be refunded 1 their buy-ins and entry fees, and will equally divide up the buy-ins of the players already eliminated (regardless of the 1 chip standing when the tournament was halted).

The last remaining player in the tournament (has won all the chips) is the 1 winner. Tournaments prizes are determined according to the Tournament Prize Pool Structure, in the Tournament section of this site.

The number 1 of players and buy-in amounts are subject to change at any time by 888poker.

Enjoy the tables and good luck!
